Our Offerings

Main offering May 27: Idaho Conference Advance

This monthly offering is divided between our elementary schools, Gem State Adventist Academy, and Camp Ida-Haven, making the children and youth of our conference the direct recipients.

Children's offering: Flames Club Fund

Our Pathfinder and Adventurer Club is an important ministry that blesses kids from age 4 to 8th grade who choose to participate, and provides them opportunities to learn and to bless others!

Tithes and offerings can be placed in a tithe envelope found in the seatback pockets and dropped in the offering box in the back.

Looking Ahead: June 06 offerings will be for Church Budget (main) and Sabbath School Papers (children's).

Next Sabbath—Let's face it, for the average Joe, interest rates are not at their best for investing in the future. At times, I've personally watched my retirement fund cost me money rather than make me money. Maybe you can relate. But there is an investment that is still worth making. Join us next Sabbath as we look at Investing in Heaven.

All of you together are Christ's body, and each of you is a part of it.

Constituents and Constituency Meetings—

What are they?

CAES will hold its annual constituency meeting this coming Thursday. Meanwhile, we are electing delegates for the Idaho Conference constituency meeting scheduled for September. It's a good time for a quick review of what this means.

Webster's defines a constituent as a member of and an essential part.

The Caldwell Church is a constituent church of CAES. Along with the Nampa and Gem State Academy Churches, we provide financial support to our school. Each year, the school holds a meeting to report on the school year, present the budget, and deal with any other matters of business.

As members of this church, each of us is a CAES constituent and a voting member at this meeting.

We are each an essential part.

As a church we are also a constituent of the Idaho Conference, along with all SDA churches in southern Idaho and eastern Oregon.

Every four years, an Idaho Conference Constituency Session occurs to conduct the business of the conference, including electing conference leadership and committees, reviewing changes in articles and bylaws, and dealing with all other matters of business.

The next session will be September 17, 2023.

Each constituent church is allotted a certain number of delegates to this meeting, based on the number of members in the church.

The delegates we are voting today will represent us at this meeting and will vote on the matters of business for the Idaho Conference.

Again, we are each an essential part.

Thank you for your prayers, and your participation as you are able.
